1. We note your response to comment 1. Please expand your disclosure to clarify that the terms of the merger, including the exchange ratio of 2.03 AHPAC shares for each share of Organogenesis, were negotiated by Messrs. Dean and Burgstahler who, at the same time, approved the private investment at the effective price of $5.91 per share and controlled the Sponsor, which, in turn, surrendered AHPAC shares to provide Organogenesis with equity at an effective price of $7.035 per share, and that such terms may not reflect the value of Organogenesis stock if it were a publicly-traded company.

2. Please clarify what it means to "primarily" represent AHPAC in the negotiations.

Additionally, if accurate, please specifically state that Thompson Dean, David Burgstahler, Sriram Venkataraman and Robert Girardi are investors in the PIPE investment.

3. We note your response to comment 5 with respect to the proxy statement regarding your October 4, 2018 extraordinary general meeting. While your response did not address the basis for your belief that your redemption offer was not required to comply with the provision of Exchange Act Rule 13e-4 and Regulation 14E, we do not have any follow up comments about this issue at this time. Our decision to not issue additional comments should not be interpreted to mean that we either agree or disagree with your response.

4. Please expand your disclosure to discuss the uninterested and independent Directors approval of the transaction with the PIPE Investors as required by Article 49.7(b) of your Articles of Association.

5. Please expand your disclosure to highlight the lack of an independent third party fairness or valuation advisor in determining the value of Organogenesis.

6. We note that your description of the comparable companies analysis also compared average annual percentage revenue growth and 2019 estimated gross margin percentages for the comparable companies. Please present the results from this analysis.

7. You disclose the following on page 22 of Form 10-Q for the period ended September 30, 2018: "Pursuant to a deferred fee letter, dated as of August 17, 2018, the Underwriters agreed that, in the event the deferred discount becomes payable upon the completion of a business combination, such amount will be reduced to $5,128,205. The deferred underwriting commissions held in the Trust Account will be forfeited in the event we do not complete a business combination, subject to the terms of the Underwriting Agreement.
The Underwriters are not entitled to any interest accrued on the deferred underwriting commissions." You also disclose on page 13 of the Form 10-Q that "The Commission will be forfeited if the Company is unable to complete a

Please revise your Form S-4 to discuss the updated terms in the deferred fee letter, and clearly disclose the reasons for the deferred underwriting amounts forfeited by the underwriters to date.
Clearly disclose the revised date for completing a business combination after which the remaining deferred underwriting fee of $5,128,205 will be forfeited.
